

The background of the advertisement is a photograph of a modern, bright meeting room. The room features large windows on the left side, offering a view of a tropical beach with palm trees and the ocean. Several rectangular tables are arranged in the room, each covered with a dark grey tablecloth and surrounded by light-colored upholstered chairs. On the tables, there are glass water carafes and small white cards. In the background, a large screen displays the Marriott Resort San Juan Stellaris Casino logo. The overall atmosphere is professional and inviting.
